Beautiful semi-finished stone house located in a traditional mountainous settlement

In a picturesque and mountainous village in the middle of the island of Lefkada and surrounded by small hills covered with vineyards, olive trees and cypresses, this unfinished stone house awaits your personal taste and your final touch to offer an authentic quality of life in the village.

Built in a traditional way with stone walls and wood and renovated in 2009, it is developed on 2 levels on a plot of 593,81m². Entering the house, you will have an open plan living-kitchen area and a bathroom. From an internal staircase, you ascend to the first floor where you could have at least 2 bedrooms and a bathroom.

The exterior is characterized by a spacious courtyard with charming views of the surrounding greenery, a parking space and plenty of space for the construction of a swimming pool.
