Stone house set in a quiet environment with beautiful views towards the princess islets and the surrounding rolling hills

On the hillside area of the mountainous village of Neohori, above the area of Nidri, this charming stone house offers tranquility, privacy and beautiful views towards the Ionian East Coast with its small islets and the rolling green hills.

The property spreads on a plot of 390.53 sqm and a total living space of 104,22 sqm developing into 2 levels. On the ground floor, there is an open space living, dining and kitchen area with a fireplace, a WC and a small storage, while from the wooden staircase we reach the first level where we have 2 bedrooms, the one with access to a balcony area, a bathroom and a further small room which can be used according to someone needs. Apart from the fireplace, the property has installation for heating, too. At the back of the house, there is a storage area of 21 sqm and next to the main residence, a stone-covered garage area of 69.90 sqm.

The outside area offers a spacious concrete terrace and the proper space for a swimming pool if someone wishes.
